

Deputy Graduates with Two Top Awards

Deputy Jonathan Waddell graduated with the Top Skills Award and the Top Overall Achievement Award from the Rappahannock Regional Criminal Justice Academy. The ceremony took place on December 2, 2005 which had Deputies from 6 different jurisdictions.

The ceremony was hosted by Edward J. Evers, Director Rappahannock Regional Criminal Justice Academy, with special guest speaker Eugene Claiborne, Jr., of the Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services. The graduates were encouraged to remember the importance of safety in the line of duty and upholding the law to the highest standards.

Deputy Waddell began his career at the Sheriff's Office as an Emergency Communications Specialist in October 2003 and returns from the Academy as Corrections Officer. "His top-notch skills and ambition are a welcome addition to our department", says Sheriff Charlie Ray Fox, Jr. "Deputy Waddell is willing and eager to make a difference in the community and attitudes like these are what make the Sheriff's Office operate smoothly". "Congratulations and thanks for all your superior efforts".
